

WOMEN

Writing the West

BOOK
CORRAL

SCHOLARLY NONFICTION

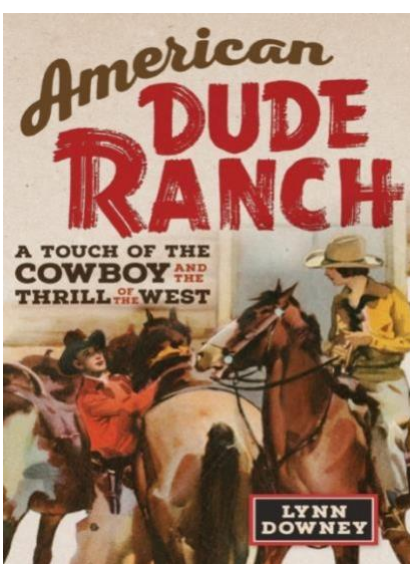

Pioneer cemeteries provide a wealth of information about the people who settled Texas during its years as a Republic and after it became the twenty-eighth state in 1845. This book exhumes the stories of these pioneers, revealing the intriguing truth behind the earliest graveyards and demystifying early burial traditions.

Author: Cynthia Leal Massey

Author Website: <https://cynthialealmassey.com>

For more information or to purchase visit the book's page at Amazon.

Formats available: Paperback; eBook

The dude ranch is America's original western vacation. "American Dude Ranch" opens up a new perspective on this buckaroo getaway, demonstrating the deep links to many aspects of culture: the role of women, food, clothing, race relations, literature, and film.

Author: Lynn Downey

Author Website: <http://www.lynndowney.com>

For more information or to purchase visit the book's page at Author's Website.

Formats available: Paperback; eBook

WOMEN

Writing the West

BOOK
CORRAL

SCHOLARLY NONFICTION

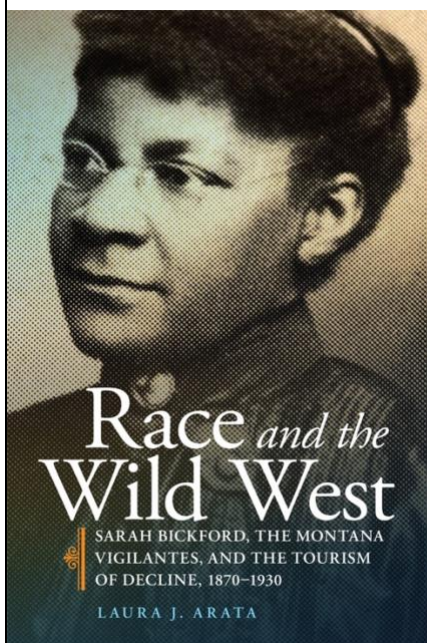

Spokane, Washington's first female physician, Mary A Latham, sought a better climate for her health and worked tirelessly for the health of all of Spokane's citizens, but particularly women and children and especially the poor. Read why she was accused, arrested, and convicted of arson, then sentenced to the penitentiary. Spokane, Washington's first female physician, Mary A Latham, sought a better climate for her health and worked tirelessly for the health of all of Spokane's citizens, but particularly women and children and especially the poor. Read why she was accused, arrested, and convicted of arson, then sentenced to the penitentiary.

Author: Beverly Lionberger Hodgins

Author Website: <http://beverlylionbergerhodgins.com/>

For more information or to purchase visit the book's page at Amazon.

Formats available: Hardback

Born a slave, Sarah Bickford became the first African American female public utilities owner in the nation and Montana tourism promoter. Winner of the 2021 Spur Award for Best First Non-Fiction Book from Western Writers of America and the 2021 Gita Chaudhuri Prize from Western Association of Women's Historians.

Author: Laura Arata

Author Website: jacksonjane.com

For more information or to purchase visit the book's page at Amazon.

Formats available: Paperback; eBook

WOMEN

Writing the West

BOOK
CORRAL

SCHOLARLY NONFICTION

Finalist Scholarly Non-fiction; Women Writing the West; Finalist for Will Rogers Medallion Award,

The book details mid-1800s theater in the Old West. True West magazine: "scholarly, insightful, meticulously researched... theater... as a reflection of the American melting pot... Eichin's erudite analysis... is the best... study of the subject to date."

Author: Carolyn Grattan Eichin

For more information or to purchase visit the book's page at University of Nevada Press

Formats available: Hardback; eBook

First to chronicle Jane Street's defiant efforts as a leader of the so-called housemaid rebellion, award-winning author Jane Little Botkin paints a fascinating—and ultimately heartbreaking—portrait of one woman's courageous fight for equality in the wake of Colorado's violent labor disputes.

Author: Jane Little Botkin

Author Website: <http://jane@janelittlebotkin.com>

For more information or to purchase visit the book's page at Amazon.

Formats available: Hardback; Paperback;
eBook

