

Guidelines for Evaluating WILLA Entries in the Middle Grade Fiction Category

The purpose of Women Writing the West® is to become the internationally recognized organization of writers and other professionals engaged in writing and promoting writing about the North American West with emphasis on the experiences and sensibilities of women in that region. The WILLA Literary Awards are presented annually for outstanding literature featuring women's or girls' stories set in the North American West and includes Alaska and Hawaii.

Fiction entries can be written about issues important to modern day readers ages 8-14, such as divorce, bullying, but without foul language or sexual content. The following rubrics were developed to help readers evaluate these entries. They are intended to be guidelines only. Readers should use their own judgement in assessing how well each entry suits its target audience.

Both author and illustrator are awarded for this category.

Points should be awarded as follows:

- 10 – exceptional in all regards
- 9 – excellent
- 8 – well done
- 7 – majority well done; room for polish
- 6 – good overall with strong points
- 5 – good overall
- 4 – good overall with some weak points
- 3 – good start but needs work
- 2 – good idea but poor presentation
- 1 – needs work throughout
- 0 – ineligible

Note that entries that do not warrant at least 4 points in the first benchmark, “Women of the West Theme,” should be disqualified.
